

The Uncertain Journey

Father of every living and created thing and being, how I praise You! How I honor and adore You. I exalt You above all, for You are my maker, my deliverer, my strong tower.

Prepare my heart for Your active presence in my life by way of Your Holy Spirit. Wash me and cleanse me for I have sinned and fallen short of Your ways.

Guide me now in my thoughts and my words;
Help me to focus on Your purpose for my life.
I submit now to Your will and Your way.

I am stepping out in faith on Your Word,
And not knowing where my next step should be,
I am trusting that You are walking beside me;
Guiding me, directing me, and carrying me when I become weary.

Hold my hand Lord, never let me go.
Guide my feet Lord, keep me from wandering.
I am waiting on You Lord. I desire not to move until You speak. I desire to cooperate with all of the plans You have for me. This I pray in the name of Your Son, Jesus the Christ. Amen.

From: Prayers for the Journey, Rev. Dr. Sarah F. Davis, 2003
Copyright © 2003 Rev. Dr. Sarah Frances Davis